

2. Such alteration in the relief shall be effected by a resolution of the committee of management of the said society, adopted in the manner usually followed for the proceedings of the said committee, and notice thereof shall be given to each of such widows by a letter from the president or secretary of the said society. Mode of making such commutation.

3. After the sending of such letter, the society may tender to each widow, the aforesaid sum of one hundred and fifty dollars, to liquidate and discharge all claims against the society for her share, and if any one of such widows refuses to accept the said sum, the society may retain it on deposit in the name of such widow, and shall only be bound to pay her the legal rate of interest thereon, in lieu of the annual relief to which she would have been entitled if the present act had not been passed. Tender of amount to widows.

4. The said committee of management may, from time to time hereafter, increase or reduce, according to the state of the society's resources, and at its discretion, the relief which shall become payable either to sick members or to the widows of deceased members of the society. Relief may be increased or diminished.

5. If the state of the society's finances becomes such as to enable it to have a reserve fund of twenty thousand dollars, the widows, the amount of whose relief shall have been commuted for a fixed sum as aforesaid, may exact the payment, as relief, of a weekly sum of one dollar and fifty cents for the future, and the arrears due for the past, after deducting the aforesaid sum of one hundred and fifty dollars. Right of widows, if Society's finances increase to a certain amount.

6. The society may acquire by gratuitous title and hold immovable property to an amount not exceeding twenty thousand dollars. Power to acquire real estate.

7. Should the said corporation take part in any strike in any way whatever or encourage the same it shall forfeit all its rights under the present act. Rights forfeited in certain cases.

2. The present act shall come into force on the day of its sanction. Act in force.
