An act to amend chapter 75 of the consolidated Statutes for Lower Canada, respecting the division line between the counties of Compton and Beauce.

[Assented to 31st October, 1879.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS some ambiguity exists in the description of the line of division between the counties of Compton and Beauce, in relation to the Township of Clinton;

And whereas it is now important that such ambiguity be removed; Therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislature of Quebec, declares and enacts as follows:

S. 43 of c. 75,
C. S. L. C.,
amended.

1. Section 43 of Chapter 75 of the Consolidated Statutes for Lower Canada is amended by striking out the following words, in the 13th line of said section: 'And Clinton.'

S. 50 id,
amended.

2. Section 50 of said chapter 75 is amended by striking out all the words after: "Chesham," and substituting therefor the following words: "Emberton and all the township of Clinton."

Alteration, extended.

3. The alteration made in the counties mentioned in the title of this act, shall extend to parliamentary, judicial, registration, municipal and school purposes.

Interpretation.

4. Inasmuch as doubts have heretofore existed as to whether the whole of the township of Clinton was or was not within the limits of the said county of Compton, it is hereby declared that for municipal, registration and school purposes, the said township of Clinton always has been for municipal, registration and school purposes, within said county of Compton.

An act to amend chapter 75 of the Consolidated Statutes for Lower Canada, respecting the division line between the Counties of Bellechasse and Dorchester.

[Assented to 31st October, 1879.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS doubts and difficulties have arisen, from imperfection and vagueness of description, as to the true position of that part of the line of division between
