

others in lieu thereof; provided always that the net Revenues, rents or revenues arising from the real estate of the said corporation, may not, at any time, exceed the annual limited. sum of ten thousand dollars.

5. The majority of the members of the said corporation shall have power and authority to make and pass such statutes, rules and regulations, not contrary to the laws in force in this province, as it shall deem to be useful or necessary for the interests of the said corporation, or for the government thereof, or for the admission or resignation of its members, and it may, at any time, modify, repeal and alter the said statutes, rules, orders and regulations, or any of them. Power to make by-laws.

6. The majority of the members of the said corporation may appoint one or more administrators for the management of the affairs of the said corporation. Management of the affairs.

7. From and after the coming into force of this act, all the real and personal estate, dues, rights and assets of the said establishment of Côte des Neiges, up to that time possessed and administered by and in the name of "the civil society of the provincial house, of the college of Notre-Dame, Côte des Neiges," shall become the property of the said corporation of the "college of Notre-Dame, Côte des Neiges," and the said corporation shall, at the same time, become liable for all the debts, charges and obligations of the said civil society, which shall thereafter cease to exist. Certain properties transferred.

8. It shall be the duty of the corporation, whenever thereunto required, to submit to the lieutenant-governor a detailed statement of the real estate possessed thereby under this act, and of the revenue arising therefrom. Report to the legislature.

9. This act shall come into force on the day of the sanction thereof. Act in force.

CAP. LXXXII.

An Act to incorporate the College of St. Césaire.

[Assented to 24th December, 1875.]

WHEREAS there exists in the village of St. Césaire, Preamble. county of Rouville, province of Quebec, an educational establishment known under the name of the Commercial College of St. Césaire, in which for upwards of six years have been taught all the branches of a complete commercial education, both french and english, whereas several of the principal citizens of that locality have, by their petition prayed that the said establishment be incorporated under the name of the Commercial College of St. Césaire, so as to establish it on a firm basis, and whereas such an institution would be very advantageous to the parish of St. Césaire and the public in general, and it is expedient to accede to the prayer of the said petition; Therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislature of Quebec, enacts as follows:

Incorporation.

1. The Reverend Joseph André Provençal, curé of St. Césaire, the provincial of the community of the Religieux de Ste. Croix in Canada, with power to appoint delegates to represent them at meetings of the said corporation, and three members to be chosen by the provincial, from the religieux staff of the college of St. Césaire are hereby constituted a body politic and corporate in fact and in name, under the name of the "Corporation of the commercial college of St. Césaire" and, under such name, may, from time to time, and at all times hereafter, purchase, acquire, hold, possess, exchange, sell, accept and receive for them and their successors, to and for the uses and purposes of the said corporation, or for the education of the young, all lands, tenements and hereditaments situate in this province and necessary for the use and actual occupation of the corporation, or all constituted or other rents, in the said province, and they may sell and alienate the same and acquire others by any lawful title whatever, for the same purposes, but the annual value thereof shall at no time exceed five thousand dollars, and they shall have full power and authority to make and establish such orders, rules, regulations and by-laws, as they may deem necessary for the good management and government of the said commercial college and the administration of the property thereof; provided however, that such rules or by-laws shall not be contrary to the rules, canons and constitutions of the roman catholic church and the rules, constitutions and ordinances of the majeurs superiors of the community of Ste. Croix.

Name.

Power to acquire, &c.

Annual value, limited.

Model farm.

2. The said corporation may acquire and possess, and receive by bequest or otherwise, real property of sufficient size to establish a model farm, the purposes thereof being also to teach practical agriculture.

Report to the legislature.

3. The said corporation shall, at all times, when thereunto required by the lieutenant-governor or either branch of the legislature, make a complete report of the moveable and immovable property thereof, as also of the annual receipts and expenditure.