An Act to amend the Act 27th Victoria, Chapter 24, intituled : " An Act to erect the Village of Beauharnois as a Town."

[Assented to 23rd February, 1875.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS "the mayor and council of the town of Beauharnois" have, by petition, represented that the act 27th Victoria, chapter 24, intituled : " An Act to erect the Village of Beauharnois as a town" ought to be amended ; and whereas it is expedient to grant the prayer of the said petition ; Therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislature of Quebec, enacts as follows :

Sec. 1 of 27 V.,
c. 24, amended.

1. Section first of said act of incorporation is amended by striking out the words " the mayor and council of the town of Beauharnois," in the fourth and fifth lines thereof, and substituting therefor the following words: "the corporation of the town of Beauharnois."

2. Section two of said act is repealed, and the following Section 2, repealed. section is substituted therefor:

"The boundaries and limits of the said town of Beauharnois shall be as follows: Commencing at the lake St. Louis on the line between the lots two and three, lake St. Louis range, Annstown, thence following the said line southeasterly until it reaches the continuation of the rear line of the land of the gaol and court house of the district of Beauharnois, thence westerly by a line in rear of the gaol and court house to the middle of the Beauce road, thence westerly on a line parallel with Hannah street in the said town, to the south-east side of river St. Louis, to a point being in a straight line at a distance of 4,336 feet from the middle of the said Beauce road, and also at a distance of 720 feet in a straight line from the middle of the St. Louis road, and thence crossing river St. Louis, by a line parallel to the public road leading to the Beauharnois canal, to the north-east line of the property of Louis Leduc, known as lot No. 2 of the first range of Marystown, and thence continuing this line towards the north-west along the east line of the said Leduc's property to the said lake St. Louis; and the said town shall Town boundaries. be divided into three wards, to wit: Division into wards.

First. North Ward, which shall include St. Laurent street North Ward. along its whole length, and all the streets extending to the river St. Lawrence, commencing in St. Laurent street aforesaid, and all the lots fronting on the said last mentioned street, and also all the land included within the limits of the said town, from river St. Louis, to the western line of the said town.

Second. Centre Ward, which shall include Ellice street Centre Ward. along its whole length, all the small streets extending from St. Laurent street to Ellice street, and all the lots fronting on Ellice street.

Third. South Ward, which shall include Hannah street South Ward. along its whole length, the streets extending from Ellice street to Hannah street, all the streets extending to Domaine St. Louis, and all the lots fronting on Hannah street.

3. The preceding section shall come into force and take effect only thirty days after the electors, being proprietors of real estate in the town of Beauharnois, as now defined, and those of the territory which it is desired to annex to the said town by the present act, shall have decided to accept the same. When the last section shall have effect.

Right to vote to decide the annexation.

4. The proprietors of lands within the limits of the territory that is intended to be annexed by the present act, shall, for the purposes of deciding on such annexation, have the right of voting at such election as fully and in the same manner as if they were proprietors, within the limits of the said town.

It is understood that in this exceptional case, the proprietors in the city, and in the territory to be annexed, whether holding in their own names or in the names of their wives, shall alone have the right of voting, whether they reside, or do not reside within the limits of the town of Beauharnois, or in the territory proposed to be annexed by the present act; provided always, that they shall have been proprietors for at least six months.

Meeting of electors for that purpose.

5. For the purpose mentioned in the two preceding sections, the mayor of the said town of Beauharnois, shall, within a month from the sanctioning of the present act, call a meeting of all the electors, being proprietors, mentioned in the two preceding sections, by public notice, posted in the usual places within the limits of the said town, and in another public place within the limits of the territory proposed to be annexed, at least eight clear days before the day fixed for such meeting, so that they may approve or disapprove thereof; and

in case of oppositior, &c.

if there be opposition shown to the adoption of the said section at the time of such meeting, the said mayor or the president of the meeting shall grant a poll, fixing the day for holding the same, and the votes of the proprietors of real estate, shall be then enregistered in the manner used at the election for mayor or municipal officers of the said town. The said poll shall be thus held on one day only, at the usual place, from nine o'clock, in the forenoon, to four o'clock, in the afternoon. The said mayor shall cause the secretary-treasurer of the said town, to enregister, in a book prepared for that purpose, the names of the electors who shall vote for the said section, and of those who shall vote against it, and if during one hour no vote is polled, he shall terminate his proceedings by counting the votes and certifying the whole under his signature, after which he shall deposit the said book with a certificate showing the result in the hands of the said secretary-treasurer of the said town, who shall preserve the same in the archives of the said town, and the said secretary-treasurer shall be obliged to give copies thereof, on payment to him made of ten cents for each hundred words thereof; and if the majority of the said electors called upon to vote, have approved of the said section, the mayor shall publish the same at the parochial church door during the two consecutive Sundays that follow the said day of meeting, and he shall cause his cer-

If any one so summoned before the said town council, fails without just cause to appear at the time and place mentioned in the summons, when compensation shall have been paid or offered to him for his reasonable travelling expenses for going and returning, and fifty cents a day for his time, he shall incur a penalty of not less than ten, nor more than twenty dollars, or an imprisonment not exceeding fifteen days; such penalty may be recovered by suit of the corporation of the said town, before the mayor of said town or any justice of the peace residing therein.

17. Section nineteen of said act is repealed.

18. The said town council shall appoint every year, at its general session in the month of May, or at a previous session, three assessors, who shall be bound to make oath before acting, and it shall be their duty to make, between the fifteenth day of May, and the fifteenth day of July, in each year, and in the manner prescribed by the council, the valuation of the rateable properties in the town, and that, distinctly as to each category, according to the real value thereof, and it shall be their duty to enter on the said roll, the names of the tenants and the amount by them paid for rent. They shall further inscribe in the said roll, all other informations required by the council.

19. Within thirty days next following that upon which the general valuation roll of the said town shall have finally taken force and effect, the secretary-treasurer shall be bound under a penalty not exceeding fifty dollars, to make out and prepare, for the said town, an alphabetical list of the names of persons, who, according to the said roll, shall appear to be duly qualified as municipal voters, in the said town as owners or tenants; and the said secretary-treasurer shall certify the correctness of such list under oath taken before the mayor of the said town, or, in his absence, before any other justice of the peace, and he shall deposit such list in the office of the town council on the day following.

2. In all the cases when for any reason whatever, the electoral list above mentioned shall not have been made out and prepared in the manner and delay above prescribed, the town council may order the secretary-treasurer to make out any such list within a further delay, to be fixed by the said council.

20. Within two juridical days next following that of the deposit of the said alphabetical list in the office of the town council, the secretary-treasurer shall give public notice of such deposit, in the manner prescribed for the publication of the by-laws of the said town ; such notice shall moreover mention that the said list shall remain posted up in the said office, for the information and examination of the interested parties during fifteen days next following that upon which the said list shall have been deposited as aforesaid.

21. During the said fifteen days, every person who shall desire to have his name added on such voters' list, or every elector who shall desire to have a name erased from such list, shall prefer his request in writing and under his signature, or viva voce before the council, stating the ward or wards to which he belongs, or to which belongs the person whose name he shall desire to be erased as aforesaid, and shall cause such request to be delivered to the secretary-treasurer on or before the last day of the delay hereinabove granted to prefer such request, and in case such last day be a non-judicial day, the said request shall be made in the aforesaid manner no later than the next following judicial day. Complaints and claims, &c.

22. At seven o'clock in the evening of the last day the voters' list is to remain posted up in the office of the town council, a board of revisors of the said list which shall be composed of three councillors to be specially appointed by the council for that purpose, at its general session in the month of June, and if such general session has not been held, at a special session to be held within fifteen days from the time of the said general session, shall proceed to the revision and amendment, if required, of the said voters' list ; Revision of the list by a board of revisors.

2. The three members of the board of revisors shall, in all cases, act together ;

3. Such councillor as the other members of the board shall choose at the meeting, shall preside thereat ;

4. The said revisors shall act as such, under their oath of office as councillors.

23. The said revisors shall hear the persons who shall have made any claims and shall decide thereon ; if the said list be not then examined, they shall have the power to adjourn from day to day until the said list shall be finally revised and settled ; Duties of the revisors.

2. The person presiding at the said board, shall have power to examine, upon oath, persons respecting the said claims and all matters connected with the revision of the said list, and to administer such oath to that effect ; Power of the president.

3. The said board, after having heard the best evidence of which the cases will admit, shall be bound and they are hereby required to decide upon the said voters' list, and to make to the said list the necessary additions or erasures respecting the claims to them submitted ; they shall have Duties and powers of the board.

also the power to correct all errors, or to add anything accidentally omitted on the said list; and the said list so revised and settled, shall be signed by the officer presiding the said board, countersigned by the secretary of the said town, who shall act as secretary of the said board, and sealed with the town seal, and the same shall be the only correct voters' list; provided always, that the name of no person shall be erased from the said list, without such person being notified of the claim for that purpose, and of his having had occasion to be heard respecting such claim; and provided also, that the said revisors shall hear no claim unless the same be made as above mentioned;

Proviso :

Time the list shall remain in force.

If list is not made out.

4. The said list shall remain in force till the time when the new list of the municipal voters for the following year, shall finally come into force;

5. In case such list be not made out or in case there is no list at the time of any municipal election of the said town, such election shall not be prevented on that account, and the qualification of the electors shall be ascertained in such case, by the oath of the voter and the valuation roll then in force in the said town.

Power and duty of the president of the election.

24. The president of the election for the said town, and in his absence, his poll clerk, whom he is by this act authorized to appoint on the day next preceding such election or before such day, shall have respectively the authority, and they are hereby required, when requested by any person duly qualified to vote at the election of the mayor, and at the election of the councillors in the said town, to administer the following oath to any person tendering his vote at any such election, to wit :

Oath of voters.

" You swear that you are a subject of Her Majesty, that you are entitled to take part and to vote at this election, that all municipal assessments, taxes and other dues imposed upon your property or properties (or on the property or properties held by you as tenant,) due and payable previous to the first of January instant, have been paid, (if the oath is taken by a tenant,) that you reside and pay rent in the town of Beauharnois since at least six months before this day," (if there be a list of the municipal voters,) " that it is your name which is entered on the list of the voters of this town, and that you have not before voted at this election of the mayor or councillors of the said town : So help you God."

Right of vote.

25. No person shall have the right to have his vote registered in the poll book kept for the election of the mayor or of the councillors, unless the name of such person shall be inscribed on the said list of voters, except in the case of sub-section 5 of section 23 without prejudice nevertheless, to the provisions contained in section eight of this act, as to the payment of the assessments and to the period of time of the residence of the tenants within the limits of the said town.

26. It shall be lawful for the secretary-treasurer of the said town, from time to time, to appoint under his hand, an "assistant-secretary-treasurer," who may perform all the duties of the office of secretary-treasurer, with the same rights, powers and privileges, and under the same obligations and penalties as the secretary-treasurer himself, except as regards giving security, which the latter is bound to give, and such security the said secretary-treasurer shall not be obliged to renew yearly, but shall remain in force as long as the sureties shall not have been legally discharged ;

By-laws.

Coming into force of the
by-laws.

32. The by-laws of the said town shall come into force and shall take effect as law, if not otherwise prescribed in the provisions contained in such by-laws, fifteen days after their promulgation, except always in the case of appeal to the proper authority, as hereinafter provided, against the passing of any by-law by the council of the said town, and in any other case otherwise provided for by the provisions of the said act or of this act.

Promulgation of by-laws.

33. The by-laws of the said town which, in consequence of provisions of their own, or of the said act, or of this act, shall only come into force at some stated period, shall be promulgated at least fifteen days before such period.

Idem.

34. Every by-law passed by the said town council, and amended or confirmed in appeal by the proper authority, shall come into force fifteen days after its promulgation or publication under section fortieth of this act.

Signature of
by-laws.

35. The original of every municipal by-law, to be authentic, shall be signed by the mayor, or by the councillor presiding the session of the council at which such by-law was passed, as the case may be, and countersigned by the secretary-treasurer or by his assistant secretary-treasurer.

Certificate an-nexed thereto.

2. If it has been necessary to submit the by-law for the approval of the municipal electors, before it shall come into force, and it has received such approval, a certificate under the signature of the mayor, or of the secretary-treasurer, certifying to each of these facts, shall accompany and form part of the original of such by-law.

Duration of
by-laws.

36. The by-laws of said town shall be executory and shall remain in force until they shall be amended, repealed or annulled by the town council, or by the competent authority hereinafter designated, or until the expiration of the time for which they shall have been made.

Amendments to by-laws.

37. The by-laws of the said town which shall have been submitted to the approval of the municipal electors of the said town before they came into force and effect, shall only be amended or repealed by another by-law approved of in the same manner.

Idem.

38. The amendment or repeal by the said town council, of any by-law, shall be made only by a by-law of said town for that purpose, and before proposing any such by-law, a notice of motion shall be given at a previous meeting.

Security of payment.

Proviso :

56. It shall be lawful for the said town council to contract loans, by issuing bonds or debentures signed by the mayor, countersigned by the secretary, and sealed with the seal of the town council; such loans made payable to the bearer thereof at such periods as the said council may think proper to fix, and such bonds or debentures shall bear interest, payable semi-annually on the first days of July and January in each year, and at a rate not exceeding the legal rate of interest in this province; and coupons for the amount of the semi-annual interest thereon may be annexed to all such bonds or debentures, which coupons, being signed by the mayor, and countersigned by the secretary-treasurer, shall be payable respectively to the holder thereof when and immediately after the semi-annual interest therein mentioned shall become due, and upon payment of the same, shall be delivered to the said secretary-treasurer; and the possession of any such coupon shall be prima facie evidence that the semi-annual interest therein mentioned has been paid according to the tenor of such debenture or bond; and all such debentures and bonds, together with the principal and interest thereon, shall be secured upon the general funds of the said town, provided that the by-laws authorizing such loans be also submitted for the approval of the electors being proprietors in the said town, in conformity with the rules prescribed in section 57 of this act.

By-laws to this effect.

General meeting of the proprietors.

57. No by-law passed in virtue of the two preceding sections shall have any force or effect until it shall have been approved by the majority in number and by the value of the assessed real property of the electors being proprietors in the said town, within the thirty days after the passing of such by-law. This approbation shall be expressed in a public meeting presided over by the mayor, or, in his absence, by the senior councillor of the said town, the secretary-treasurer acting as secretary, and duly called by notices signed by the mayor or by the secretary-treasurer, published and posted up in the manner prescribed for the publication and posting up of the public notice required by the provisions of this act, for the publication of by-laws; provided always, that six qualified municipal electors present at the said meeting, may demand a poll to establish such majority; and a poll shall be granted by the mayor, or, in his absence, by the presiding councillor, on being so demanded, and shall be held within four days next after such meeting, the secretary-treasurer acting as poll clerk under the direction of the mayor or of the presiding councillor, as the case may be, each elector shall then present himself in turn and shall give his vote by "yea" or "nay"; the word "nay" signifying that he disapproves of the by-law authorizing the loan; but no person's vote shall be received unless the name of such person be inscribed on the municipal voters' list then in force, if such list exist, and if there be no such list, no person shall be entitled to vote unless it appears, by the valuation roll then in force in the said town, that he is duly qualified to vote as municipal elector, and unless he has paid all his municipal taxes, at least three clear days before the day of such voting; provided always, that such poll shall be held during one day, being a juridical day, from ten o'clock in the morning until four o'clock in the afternoon. At the close of the poll, the mayor, or the presiding councillor, as the case may be, shall count the "yeas" and the "nays," and within four days thereafter, he shall lay before the town council, a statement showing the value of the real property of each of the voters, according to the valuation roll then in force, and shall certify, for the information of the town council, whether the majority in number and value of assessed real property of the electors of the town approve or disapprove of the said loan. This certificate shall be countersigned by the secretary-treasurer of the town, and preserved by him with the poll list and the aforesaid statement among the archives of his office, and if the said by-law is approved of as aforesaid, the said town council may contract the loan.
