C A P. X I X.

An Act to remove all doubts respecting the limits of the Parish of Saint-Basile le Grand.

[Assented to 28th January, 1874.]

WHEREAS by proclamation issued, under the great seal of this province, the fifteenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, the canonical decree of his lordship the Roman Catholic Bishop of Montreal, dated the twenty-third day of November, eighteen hundred and seventy, erecting the parish of Saint-Basile le Grand, in the diocese of Montreal, was civilly recognized and confirmed; and whereas the said parish is composed of two territories, one of which is called "Shirt-point," (Pointe de Chemise), and the other "Jacob Seigniory," and that the limits of the said parish as so fixed, as well by the said decree of erection as by the said proclamation, are declared to be the same towards the south-west as those of Jacob Seigniory; whereas there exists a contestation touching the line which divides the said Jacob Seigniory with the adjoining barony of Longueuil, that it is uncertain if three of the lots in the range known as Rang des quarante, and owned by Jérémie Hébert, Pierre Huet dit Dulude and Moïse Grisé, form part of the said Jacob Seigniory, and also of the said parish of Saint-Basile le Grand, and that it is important to remove all doubts upon this subject;

Considering that by a declaratory decree, dated the sixth of December, eighteen hundred and seventy-three, His Lordship the Roman Catholic Bishop of Montreal, explained the said decree of erection of the said parish, by declaring that the said three properties of Jérémie Hébert, Pierre Huet dit Dulude, and Moïse Grisé do not form part of the said parish of Saint-Basile, but continue to belong to the parish of Saint-Joseph de Chambly; Therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislature of Quebec, enacts as follows:

decree of the bishop
rendered valid.

1. The declaratory decree of his lordship the Roman Catholic Bishop of Montreal, dated the sixth of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, is by the present act recognized and confirmed civilly for all purposes whatsoever. The limits of the parish of Saint-Basile le Grand, in the diocese of Montreal, are declared by this act to be and always to have been, to the south-west, as follows:

Limits fixed.

"From the river Richelieu running towards the north west as far as the road called "Chemin du rang des quarante," the limits of the said parish is the seigniorial line, dividing the said Jacob seigniory from the seigniory of Chambly, belonging to one Yule; at the said road du rang des quarante it shall form an angle by following the road du rang des quarante towards the east for a distance of about six arpents, and thence it shall form another angle, and runs again towards the north-west lengthwise with the land of the said Jérémie Hébert, which, in this place, forms the limits of the said parish, the three properties of the said Jérémie Hébert, Pierre Huet dit Dulude and Moïse Grisé shall thus be excluded from the said parish of Saint-Basile le Grand and continue to form part of the parish of Saint-Joseph de Chambly."
