

CAP. LVIII.

An Act to authorize the Provincial Board of Notaries to admit, after examination, Alphonse Guy, as a Notary.

[Assented to 28th January, 1874.]

WHEREAS Alphonse Guy, of the city of St. Hyacinthe, Preamble.
 in this province, law student, has, by petition, represented that he was admitted to the study of the notarial profession on the fifteenth day of June, 1868, that he was duly bound by indentures unto Mtre. J. C. Bachand, notary, on the first day of July, 1868, that he has studied the said notarial profession regularly and without interruption from the first day of July, 1868, to the twenty-ninth day of September, 1869, under the said J. C. Bachand, that he was under the necessity of interrupting his regular studies of the notarial profession, from the twenty-ninth day of September, 1869, until the sixth day of November, 1870, that from the sixth day of November, 1870, to the seventh day of May, 1873, he has continued to study the said notarial profession regularly and without interruption, under the same J. C. Bachand, notary; and whereas the provincial board of notaries have, by resolution passed to that effect, recommended the petition of the said Alphonse Guy to the favorable consideration of this house; and whereas, by the said petition, he hath prayed that the provincial board of notaries, upon due and satisfactory examination, be authorized to admit him to practice as a notary; Therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislature of Quebec, enacts as follows:

1. The provincial board of notaries, upon due proof to their satisfaction, after he shall have undergone the examination required from candidates for admission to the said profession, that the said Alphonse Guy, has a sufficient knowledge of law and of the practice of the notarial profession, may admit the said Alphonse Guy to practice as a notary, any law or usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

Admission of A. Guy as a notary after examination,

