CAP. VII.

An Act to amend the Act, intituled: "An Act respecting the Department of Agriculture and Public Works, and to constitute a Council of Arts and Manufactures."

[Assented to 24th December, 1872.]

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislature of Quebec, enacts as follows:

Board of arts, &c., abolished.

Sec. 101 to 122 of 32 V., c. 15, repealed.

1. The corporation heretofore existing and known in this province as "The Board of Arts and Manufactures," is hereby abolished, and the sections of the Act 32 Victoria, chap. 15, intituled: "An Act respecting the Department of Agriculture and Public Works," relating thereto, from the section 101 to the section 122, both inclusive, are hereby repealed.

Council of arts, &c., established. Its office.

2. The said Board of Arts and Manufactures hereby abolished shall be replaced by a Council of Arts and Manufactures, whose office it shall be to advise the commissioner of agriculture and public works, and the minister of public instruction, on all measures calculated to promote the progress of the arts and manufactures in this province.

Composition of council.

3. The Council of Arts and Manufactures shall be composed of seventeen members appointed by the lieutenant-governor in council; the commissioner of agriculture and public works, and the minister of public instruction, shall be ex-officio members of the council.

4. The members of the said council shall hold office during good pleasure, and shall be subject in the execution of their duties, to the orders and instructions transmitted to them from time to time by the lieutenant-governor.

Duration of office of members.

5. They shall be a legal corporation under the name of "The council of arts and manufactures" with power to hold and possess immoveable property to the value of forty thousand dollars, over and above any which the said council shall make use of.

Corporate name and powers.

6. All moneys in the possession of the said board of arts and manufactures remaining unexpended in the hands of their treasurer, or deposited to their credit, in any bank, or in the hands of any person whatsoever, shall belong to the council of arts and manufactures, shall be paid over to the treasurer of the province, and shall be by him deposited to the credit of the said council, which shall be entitled to dispose of the same for any of the purposes of its formation, after having first defrayed all the lawful debts of the said board, if any there are; and any officer of the said board, any bank, and any individual, having in his or their possession, any part of such moneys, and refusing to deliver up and pay over the same to the treasurer of the province, may be sued therefor in an action of account or otherwise in the name and for the benefit of the council of arts and manufactures, before any competent court, and be condemned to pay such part of the said moneys, and in addition thereto a penalty not exceeding five hundred dollars for the benefit of the said council of arts and manufactures.

Moneys of board to be paid to provincial treasurer and deposited to credit of council.

Officers of board, or others withholding such moneys may be sued and incur a penalty.

7. All the claims of, and debts due to the said board, shall be the property of the council of arts and manufactures, and in default of payment, the said council may sue, before all competent courts, for the recovery of the same, all those by whom they are lawfully due.

Debts due to the board may be recovered by council.

8. All books, maps, archives, models, articles belonging to museums, specimens and generally all the personal property and real estate of the said board shall, from the coming into force of this act, be the property of the council of arts and manufactures and the commissioner may take possession thereof in the name of the said council.

Property of board to pass to council.

9. The commissioner of agriculture and public works shall call the first meeting of the said council by letter addressed at least five days before the meeting to each member, informing them of the place selected for the meeting, and shall preside at the said meeting until the election of the president by the council.

Calling of first meeting.

Services of members to be gratuitous but their expenses to be paid. 10. The services of the members of the council shall be gratuitous, and they shall be entitled to no compensation other than the expenses occasioned by their presence at any regular or special meeting of the said council.

Quorum. 11. Seven members of the council, at any regular or special meeting, shall form a quorum for the transaction of business.

Officers. 12. The only officers of the council shall be a president, a vice-president and a secretary.

Election of president, vice-president and treasurer. 13. The president and the vice-president and the secretary shall be elected at the first meeting of the council, by a majority of votes, and at each subsequent annual meeting; in the absence of the president and vice-president, the council may appoint a president pro tempore.

President not to vote unless there be a tie. 14. The president or his substitute in the chair during any meeting of the council, shall not be entitled to vote, unless the votes are equally divided.

Duties of Secretary. 15. It shall be the duty of the said secretary to draw up the minutes of each of the proceedings of the council, and to enter the same, one after the other, according to the date thereof, in a register to be kept for such purpose, to keep the accounts of the said council, to conduct the correspondence under the direction of the president of the council, and to keep a record of the same.

Expenses of council how paid. 16. The contingent expenses of the council of arts and manufactures together with the expenditure occasioned by such meetings, shall be paid by order of the commissioner, out of the funds deposited to the credit of the said council.

By-laws to be adopted concerning regular meetings. 17. The council, with the approval of the lieutenant-governor, shall adopt by-laws fixing the periods at which its regular meetings shall be held, and establishing the manner of proceeding thereat.

How special meetings may be called. 18. The president or the commissioner may, whenever he deems it desirable, or at the request of three members, convene special meetings of the said council, by notifying the members, by letter to such effect addressed to each of them, at least five days before such meeting.

Vacancies how filled. 19. In case of a vacancy occurring in any of the said offices in the course of the year, either by death or resignation, such vacancy may be filled up by the lieutenant-governor in council.

20. It shall be the duty of the said council of arts and manufactures :

Duties of council.

1. To take measures with the approbation of the commissioner of agriculture, to collect and establish at Montreal and elsewhere, for the instruction of practical mechanics and manufacturers, museums of minerals and other materials, substances, and chemical compositions susceptible of being used in mechanical arts and manufactures, with model rooms appropriately stocked and supplied with models of works of art, implements, mechanisms and machines of any kind (except those adapted to facilitate agricultural operations,) and free libraries containing books of reference, plans and drawings, calculated to impart useful information in connection with mechanical arts and manufactures ;
