An Act respecting the legal Profession in this Province.

[Assented to 5th April, 1869.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS there is no provision for admission to the bar in the province of Quebec, of barristers from any of the provinces of British North America, except Ontario, and whereas it is desirable that members of the bar of other provinces should enjoy the same privileges as to admission to the bar of this province, as are enjoyed by members of the bar of Ontario; Therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislature of Quebec, enacts as follows:

Reciprocal
facilities for admission of
advocates etc.,
of other provinces to practice in this province.

1. Any person who has been duly called or admitted to the bar of any of her majesty's superior courts in any of the provinces of the Dominion of Canada, in which the same privileges would be extended to advocates, barristers, attorneys, solicitors and proctors at law from this province and who produces sufficient evidence of such call or admission, and a testimonial of good character and conduct to the satisfaction of the proper committee of the council of any section of the bar of Lower Canada, and who passes an examination in law to the satisfaction of such committee, shall be entitled to be enrolled and admitted an advocate, barrister, attorney, solicitor, and proctor at law in all courts
