

tenements, hereditaments, and all real or immoveable estate, being and situate in the province of Quebec, necessary for the actual use and occupation of the said union or association, not exceeding the annual value of three thousand dollars currency, and the same to hypothecate, sell, alienate or dispose of, and to acquire other instead thereof for the said purposes; and two thirds of the members of the union or corporation shall have full power and authority to make and establish such rules, regulations and by-laws, in no respect inconsistent with this act, or with the laws in force in the province of Quebec, as they may deem expedient or necessary for the interest and administration of the affairs of the said union or association, and for the admission of members; and the same to amend and repeal from time to time, in whole or in part, and also such regulations and by-laws of the said association, as may be in force at the time of the passing of this act; they may also execute and administer, or cause to be executed or administered, all and every the other business and matters appertaining to the said union or association, and to the government and management thereof, in so far as the same may come under their control, respect being nevertheless had to the regulations, stipulations, provisions and by-laws, to be hereafter passed and established.

Power to sue
&c.

2. The said corporation may sue or be sued in all courts of justice for all sums hereafter to become due to or by the said corporation.

Revenues how applied.

3. Provided always that the rents, revenues and profits, derived from all and every the moveable and immoveable property of the said corporation, shall be appropriated and employed exclusively, to the relief of members of the said corporation, for the erection and repair of the buildings necessary for the purposes of the said corporation, and for the payment of expenses legitimately incurred in carrying out any of the objects above referred to, and that all moneys granted by the said corporation, in virtue of its constitution or of its by-laws, to sick members or to the widows or orphans of members deceased shall be exempt from any seizure issued out of any court of justice either before or after judgment.

Moneys granted in aid to be exempt from seizure.

Property debts
and by-laws of
association to pass to corporation.

4. All the real and personal estate at present belonging to the said association or which may hereafter be acquired by the members thereof, in their capacity as such, or which may be bestowed upon them, and all debts, claims and rights, which they may be possessed of in such capacity, shall be and they are hereby transferred to the corporation constituted by this act, and the said corporation shall be charged with all the obligations and liabilities of the said association; and the rules, regulations and by-laws, now or hereafter to be established, for the management of the said corporation, shall be, and continue to be the rules, regulations and by-laws of the said corporation, until altered or repealed in the manner prescribed by this act.

5. The members of the said corporation for the time being, at a general meeting, and in accordance with the by-laws in force at the time of such appointment, shall have the power to appoint such officers, managers, administrators or servants of the said corporation, as may be required for the due management of the affairs thereof, and to allow them respectively a reasonable remuneration, at the discretion of the corporation; and all officers so appointed may exercise such other powers as may be conferred upon them by the regulations and by-laws of the said corporation.

Power to appoint managers, officers, &c.

6. The officers of the said corporation, for the time being, that is to say: Adolphe Bruneau, Louis Fréchette, Edouard Paul-hus, Guillaume-Henry Chapdeleine, Trefflé Lavallée, Clément Lévesque, Nazaire Casaubon and Arthur Coulin shall remain in office, until the first next annual meeting, unless the corporation determine otherwise.

Present officers to remain until replaced.

7. The office of the said corporation and the regular meetings thereof, shall be held in the town of Sorel.

Office and meetings to be at Sorel.

8. The said corporation shall be bound to make annual reports to both houses of the legislature, containing a general statement of the affairs of the said corporation, which said reports shall be presented within the first twenty days of every session of the legislature.

Annual report to legislature.

C A P . X C I I .

An Act to incorporate the Society called "The Union of St. Joseph of Notre-Dame of Hull."

[Assented to 5th April, 1869.]

WHEREAS there has existed and still exists an association known under the name of "L'Union St. Joseph de Notre-Dame de Hull," in the county of Ottawa, which has for its object the aiding and assisting of its members in case of sickness and of assuring similar relief and other advantages to the widows and children of deceased members of the said association; and whereas the members of the said association have by their petition asked that they be incorporated; and whereas it is just to grant their demand; Therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislature of Quebec, enacts as follows:

Préambles.

1. Léon David, Dosithé Dumontier, Magloire Dumontier, Olivier Caron, Antoine Carrière, William Gaudry, Cyrille

Certain persons incorporated.

Corporate powers.

Monette, François Lalonde, Louis Groulx, Narcisse Sau-riole, Moïse Bisson, Adolphe Lapolice, François Rolin, Alfred Lane, P. Z. Amédée Quesnel, together with such other persons as now are members of the said institution, or who may hereafter become members thereof in virtue of this act, shall be and they are hereby constituted a body politic and corporate under the name "The Union of St. Joseph of Notre-Dame of Hull," for the purposes aforesaid, and by that name shall have power at all times, and at any time hereafter, to purchase, acquire, possess, hold, exchange, accept and receive for themselves and their successors, all lands, tenements and hereditaments, and all real and immoveable estate, being and situate in the province of Quebec, necessary for the actual use and occupation of the said corporation, not exceeding in annual value the sum of three thousand dollars, and the said property to hypothecate, sell, alienate and dispose of, and to acquire other instead thereof for the same purposes; and any majority whatsoever of the said corporation for the time being shall have full power and authority to make and establish such rules, regulations and by-laws, in no respect inconsistent with this act, or with the laws then in force in this province, as they may deem expedient and necessary, for the interest and administration of the affairs of the said corporation, and for the admission of members thereof; and the same to amend and repeal, from time to time, in whole or in part, and also such regulations and by-laws as may be in force at the time of the passing of this act; such majority may also execute and administer, or cause to be executed and administered all and every the other business and matters appertaining to the said corporation and to the government and management thereof in so far as the same may come under their control, regard being nevertheless had to regulations, stipulations, provisions and by-laws to be hereafter passed and established.

Application of revenues.

2. The rents, revenues and profits of the said corporation, shall be appropriated and employed exclusively for the use of members of the said corporation, for the erection and repair of the buildings necessary for the purposes of the said corporation, and for the payment of expenses legitimately incurred in the carrying out any of the objects above referred to.

Property debts
and by-laws of
association to pass to corporation.

3. All the real and personal estate at present the property of the said association or which may hereafter be acquired by the members thereof in their capacity as such, by purchase, donation or otherwise, and all debts, claims and rights, which they may be possessed of in such capacity shall be and they are hereby transferred to the said corporation, and the said corporation shall be charged with all the liabilities and obligations of the said association ; and the rules, regulations and by-laws now or hereafter to be established for the management of the said association shall be and continue to be the rules, regulations and by-laws of the said corporation, until altered or repealed in the maner prescribed by this act.

4. The members of the said corporation for the time being, or the majority of them, shall have power to appoint administrators or managers for the administration of the property of the said corporation, and such officers, managers, administrators or servants of the said corporation as may be required for the due management of the affairs thereof, and to allow to them respectively a reasonable and suitable remuneration ; and all officers so appointed shall have the right to exercise such other powers and authority for the due management and administration of the affairs of the said corporation, as may be conferred upon them by the regulations and by-laws of the said corporation.

Power to appoint managers and officers.

5. The said corporation shall be bound to make annual reports to the lieutenant-governor and to both branches of the legislature, containing a general statement of the affairs of the corporation which said reports shall be presented within the first twenty days of every session of the legislature.

Annual reports.

6. No sum of money granted by the said corporation, in virtue of its constitution or any by-law, for the purpose of aiding or assisting any member when sick, or the widow or orphans of any deceased member, shall be liable to seizure either before or after judgment ; provided always that nothing contained in this section, shall prejudice in any manner whatsoever, the rights of any creditor with regard to moneys due by the corporation to any member, either by reason of a contract, or other undertaking entered into between the said corporation and such member.

Money given in aid to be exempt from seizure.

Proviso.

C A P . X C I I I .

An Act to incorporate the Society called the " Société Bienveillante de St. Jean-Baptiste de St. Joseph de Lévis."

[Assented to 5th April, 1869.]

WHEREAS there has existed and still does exist in the parish of St. Joseph de Lévis, in the county of Lévis and district of Quebec, an association known as the " Société Bienveillante de St. Jean-Baptiste de St. Joseph de Lévis," having for its object the aid of its members in case of sickness, and the ensuring of like assistance, and other Preamble.

