Deposit of minutes, &c., of deceased &, land surveyor in prothonotary's office of district. “ 4170. The minutes, repertories and indexes of every surveyor who dies, leaves the Province, becomes incapacitated from acting owing to interdiction, removal from office, or who voluntarily ceases practising, are deposited by him or by the person in whose charge he has left them, or by his curator, widow, children, heirs or legatees, as the case may be, in the office of the prothonotary of the Superior Court for the district in which such surveyor last practised or had his residence.”

When deposit to be made. “ 4170a. Such deposit must be made within thirty days after the happening of the event which gives rise thereto, saving, in the case of death, when the delay is sixty days.

Penalty for not making deposit. “ 4170b. Every person who is obliged to make such deposit and who refuses or neglects to make the same, is liable to a fine of fifty dollars for each month's delay, counting from the delay fixed by the preceding article.

Notice to be given to prothonotary in case of default to deposit. “ 4170c. So soon as the syndic is informed that a surveyor's greffe has become subject to be deposited, and that such deposit has not been effected within the prescribed delay, he must give notice to the prothonotary of the district where such deposit should be made.

Prothonotary to take proceedings to recover greffe. “ 4170d. Upon the refusal, or neglect of any person obliged to effect such deposit, the prothonotary is bound to sue, in a summary manner, within the thirty days following the notice given to him by the syndic of the corporation of land surveyors, for the recovery and possession of such greffe by suit in revendication before a judge of the Superior Court in the district, in term or in vacation.

He is also bound to report his proceedings to the president of the corporation of land surveyors without unnecessary delay. Report by prothonotary.

In default of the prothonotary fulfilling such duties, he is personally liable to a fine of fifty dollars for each month's delay. Fine on prothonotary for neglect.

“4170e. The prothonotary shall, upon payment of the customary fees, deliver to any person requiring the same, copies of all documents contained in the greffe deposited with him. Copies to be delivered by prothonotary.”

“4170j. When a surveyor has been interdicted, absent from the Province, or has withdrawn from the corporation and is again admitted to practice, he may take possession of his greffe, if he wishes to resume practice. Land surveyor may obtain his greffe if he resumes practice.”

In no case shall the prothonotary give up the greffe, unless the land surveyor hands him a certificate, from the president of the corporation, establishing that he is not under any disciplinary penalties and that he has a right to practice. Certificate required before greffe is given up.”
