

CAP. CXIV.

An Act to authorize the Bar of the Province of Quebec to admit Fergus Murphy among its members after examination.

[Assented to 21st March, 1889.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Fergus Murphy, of the city of Quebec, has by his petition represented : that he has studied law from November, 1882, up to date, under William Cook Q. C. and Archibald H. Cook, advocates, of the city of Quebec ; that although he has studied under the above named patrons, as established by their certificate, for a longer term than the law requires, he cannot legally be admitted to practise law by the Bar of the Province of Quebec, inasmuch as he has neglected to pass the examination for the admission to the study of the profession ;

Whereas he has prayed that the Bar of the Province of Quebec be authorized to admit him to practise the profession, and whereas the majority of the members of the council of the Bar for the section of Quebec have approved the petitioner's application ; Therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislature of Quebec, enacts as follows :

F. Murphy
may be admitted to Bar upon passing examination.

1. The Bar of the Province of Quebec may admit the said Fergus Murphy as an advocate and attorney and admit him to the profession of advocate, as soon as he shall have passed the examination required by the law respecting the Bar of the Province of Quebec in the terms of articles 3544 and following of the Revised Statutes of the Province of Quebec.

Coming into force.

2. This act shall come into force on the day of its sanction.

CAP. CXV.

An Act to authorize the Bar of the Province of Quebec to admit Lawrence Lynch among its members after examination.

[Assented to 21st March, 1889.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS Lawrence Lynch, of the city of Quebec, has, by his petition, represented that he has studied the law as clerk in the office of a practising advocate for a period of fourteen years and is able to pass the usual examination for admission to the practice of the profession
