GREETINGS:

KNOW YE that reposing full trust and confidence in the loyalty, integrity and ability of the Honourable Jacob Nicol, of the city of Sherbrooke, Advocate and King's Counsel, Legislative Councillor for the Electoral Division of Bedford, in our Province of Quebec, we, of our especial grace, certain knowledge and mere motion. have nominated, constituted and appointed, and by these presents do nominate, constitute and appoint the said Honourable Jacob Nicol, Speaker of the Legislative Council in the place of the Honourable Adélard Turgeon, for him the Honourable Jacob Nicol, to have, hold and enjoy during our pleasure and his residence within the limits of our said Province, together with all and singular the rights, privileges and advantages thereunto belonging and appertaining in the most full and ample manner.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, We have caused these Our Letters to be made Patent, and the great Seal of our said Province to be hereunto affixed.

Witness our trusty and well-beloved the Honourable HENRY GEORGE CARROLL, Lieutenant-Governor of our said Province of Quebec.

At Our Government House, in Our City of Quebec, in Our said Province, the twenty-fifth day of November, in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and thirty, in the twenty-first year of Our Reign.

By Command,

ALEXANDRE DESMEULES,
Assistant Provincial Secretary.

The mace, which before lay under the Table, was laid upon the Table.

At three o'clock in the afternoon, His Honour the Honourable Henry George Carroll, Lieutenant-Governor of the Province of Quebec, being seated in the Chair on the Throne, the Honourable the Speaker of this House said: "Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, proceed to the Chamber of the Legislative Assembly and inform that House that it is His Honour's pleasure they attend him immediately in the Chamber of the Legislative Council."

Who being come thereto.

The Honourable Speaker of the Legislative Council said:

Mr. Speaker,

"I am commanded by His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor to declare to you that he freely confides in the duty and attachment of the Legislative Assembly to His Majesty's person and Government, and not doubting that their proceedings will be conducted with wisdom, temper and prudence, he grants, and, upon all occasions, will recognize and allow their constitutional privileges.

I am commanded also to assure you that the Legislative Assembly shall have ready access to His Honour upon all seasonable occasions, and that their proceedings, as well as your words and actions, will constantly receive from him the most favourable construction."

His Honour the Lieutenant Governor was then pleased to open the session by a gracious Speech from the Throne to both Houses.

Honourable Gentlemen of the Legislative Council,

Gentlemen of the Legislative Assembly,

In summoning you to your labours of the Session, I must first of all express the sorrow that I have felt at the death of three of our eminent fellow citizens who have departed since we last separated and who had taken so active a part in the development of the Province: the Messrs. Caron, Turgeon and Perron. I join with you in offering to their families our deepest sympathy.

The year which is closing with a world wide economic crisis cannot fail to cause anxiety to governments, for it becomes necessary to face problems to which, in our country at any rate, we are not accustomed.

Nevertheless, one must not exaggerate the economic situation, for confidence in ourselves and in our marvellous resources is certainly one of the principal factors for the re-establishment of our social equilibrium, but certain measures which are urgent in order to permit municipalities to take advantage of the federal legislation concerning unemployment has led the Government to summon the Legislature at an earlier date than usual. You will promptly have submitted to you proposals for Acts which the Government thinks necessary to meet the situation.

Two Commissions are at present working to solve problems of social order.

One of these appointed to study the legal position of married women presented last year two reports. The Government has requested the same Commission to prepare amendments to our Codes in order to give effect to their recommendations. A final report will be submitted to you during the course of this Session and will be followed by a Bill which, I trust, will remove the anomalies which have been the subject of complaint.

The other Commission which was appointed to study certain social questions of very practical order, amongst others, the old age pensions, is still working and will report as soon as its investigations are terminated.

The farmers and the workingmen are the two great factors in our prosperity. The Government desires to give them all possible assistance.

To the farmers, it intends to offer substantial credits for liming and draining of the land, for the distribution and diffusion of chemical fertilizers, and to indemnify the owners of animals which have been slaughtered when attacked with tuberculosis.

The Government is also desirous, in order to aid the agricultural classes, of reducing from two to one per cent this year the interest on money advanced to municipalities for the repair of roads and to give it up entirely the following year. Our municipalities will find this a considerable advantage.

As regards the main highways, the Government will ask you to complete the system by providing for the construction in the Province of several large bridges which will render circulation easier for our people and for tourists.

The Government thinks that the farmers complain with reason of the high rate of interest which they have to pay to have recourse to the agricultural loan created by the Parliament of Canada. In order to render these loans more accessible to the rural class, the Government will ask you to authorize the contribution of one and a half per cent of the interest and of the cost of administration, in order that the farmers may be able to borrow at the uniform rate of five per cent.

For a number of years the workmen have been asking the Government for a Minister of Labour apart from the Minister of Public Works. A Bill to effect this will be submitted to you.

The working people are also calling for amendments to the Workmen's Compensation Act. The Government is willing to accede to their wishes, and the Workmen's Compensation Commission will be directed to provide a system of collective assurance such as exists in certain Canadian Provinces, but with amendments which will make the law still more favourable to the working classes.

Quebec, of all the Canadian Provinces, is the one most richly endowed with water falls capable of furnishing electric power. Our development in this connection has for some years past made enormous strides and industries are being multiplied creating centers where workmen find work and farmers a market for their products. But the Government thinks that it is necessary to extend the use of electric power and to make it easily accessible to the countryside. The Public Service Commission has been directed to study this problem, and I hope that very soon our rural districts will be able to take advantage of a system which will render life in the country both happier and more remunerative by the distribution of electric power at reasonable rates.

I must add that public education continues to be one of the foremost cares of the Government. The public accounts will show you that it has not hesitated before any sacrifice in this connection from the small primary school to the universities.

The Quebec Bureau of Public Charities has exceeded all our hopes.

The hospitals, homes and refuges continue to increase and the family placement system, inaugurated last year, gives excellent results.

I may further add that our colonization centers have been largely subsidized, that the emigration of our people has been stopped and that hundreds of Quebec families have returned from the United States and established themselves in the Province.

I am happy to announce that the legislation that you adopted last year relating to the Jewish schools will not have to be put in force. Protestants and Jews have come to an understanding thanks to the conciliatory spirit that has been brought to bear upon the matter. The Government is grateful to those who, realizing the importance of conciliation in this matter, have brought it about.

Gentlemen of the Legislative Assembly,

The public accounts for the last financial year will be submitted to you. They will show an unprecedented total sum of receipts and a splendid surplus of receipts over expenses, in spite of the difficult economic situation from which our Province has not been able to escape.

Honourable Gentlemen of the Legislative Council,

Gentlemen of the Legislative Assembly,

You will be asked to legislate on subjects of both public and private interest. The development of the Province gives rise to new problems which require the attention of its legislators.

In the matter of public legislation, the Government will ask for a reduction of succession duties as well as certain amendments to the Municipal Code.

I pray that God may bless your labours and render them fruitful.

The Legislative Assembly then withdrew.
An it pleased His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor to retire.
